John C. Morrison of Laurel street left last night at midnight for New Haven, Conn., where he will visit his son, John, Jr., who is employed in a munitions office at that place.

TALK OF THE TOWN

O. I. Morse of Chelsea was among the business visitors in the city this morning.

The Gaiety club held their first outdoor dance at the pavilion in Dewey park last evening when about 25 couples danced to the music of Carroll's orchestra.

The dance lasted until 12 o'clock, there being a special air to carry them back to Barre. All the members reported a delightful time. Punch, wafers, ice cream and cake were served for refreshments.

The officers for the ensuing year were elected during the dance. For president they elected George Molla, and Miss Mary Donetti was elected secretary. The retiring president was John Casabella and Miss Sophia Rossi was secretary for the past year.

Another lot of those 50c straw hats, just right for the Fourth; also a fresh supply of the white silk waists which have been so popular. Come and see them. You'll surely buy. Mrs. W. F. Shepard.

Mrs. Philura Wilson, mother of James S. Wilson of Barre, died Thursday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herman Cross, in Worcester, death being due to a general breakdown. She was 79 years of age and had spent most of her life in Calais, in which town her husband died a year ago. She leaves four daughters, Mrs. Cross of Worcester, Mrs. Luther Wheeler and Mrs. John Fair of Calais and Mrs. LaCrosse of Montpelier; also two sons, James Wilson of Barre and Lewis Wilson of Schenectady, N. Y. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

When the whistles in the stoned shed belted sounded at 11 o'clock this forenoon nearly every employee heard his own particular whistling for the last time until Wednesday morning. Most of the manufacturers do not plan to resume operations until after the holiday, as they do not reckon it worth while to "fire up" for a single day Monday. This circumstance has given granite workers a recess of nearly four days. Barbers are to be busy over their chairs Monday until 9 o'clock in the evening, the usual weekly half holiday being omitted in view of the general holiday on Tuesday.

Small boys and stones, a combination fraught with portentous possibilities ever since David fitted a pebble into his sling, are responsible for very annoying occurrences in the Williamstown branch cut on Prospect street lately. Only yesterday a band of boys gathered on the brink of the deep cut just south of the upper bridge on Prospect street and belabored a passing train with stones. Perhaps in the play world of some 10 or a dozen boys, ranging in age from 10 to 13, the train was carrying supplies into Mexico and merited interception, but trainmen were not disposed to look at it in the same light and a complaint was registered at police headquarters.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: Mr. and Mrs. F. McKeon, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Black and Mrs. E. L. Black of Frankfort, N. Y., Paul R. French of Orleans, C. H. Mower and M. A. Brendel of Burlington, G. R. Joslyn of Orleans, Dr. H. Nelson Jackson and F. Vaughan Burgess of Burlington, C. E. Morgan of Colorado Springs, Col., Dr. Charles S. Butler of Buffalo, N. Y., Harry Palmer of White River Junction, Miss Ellen Grosscup of Mount Vernon, N. Y., William Gaul of Ottawa, Canada, Royal Lord of Burlington, William G. Calkins of Detroit, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Courtland of Orange, Mass., J. B. Vawter of Burlington, S. D. Smith of Boston, George M. Wister of Fryburg, Me., and M. E. Jones of Winooki.
